

Press-release of 26.07.2010

26 июля 2010, 10:11

On 23rd July 2010, Stats-Secretary Andrey Tsarikovskiy, Deputy Head of the Federal Antimonopoly Service (FAS Russia), had a meeting with Ildar Khalikov, the Head of the Government of the Republic of Tatarstan.

The meeting took place at the House of the Government of the Republic of Tatarstan; at the meeting there were also present Mr. Alexander Grounichev, the Head of the Office of the Federal Antimonopoly Service in the Republic of Tatarstan, and Mr. Sergey Demidov, Deputy Minister for Land and Property Relations of the Republic of Tatarstan, and others.

The parties discussed formation of the National Training Centre of FAS Russia in Kazan, Tatarstan capital city. The Centre will be used for training and advancing qualification of FAS Russia's members of staff, and organizing various events on competition policy and its enforcement with participation of Russian and foreign experts in competition law.

At the meeting the parties also discussed the current situation on the market of alcohol products in the Republic of Tatarstan.